

What's changed

Examples of what the site WAS like and what it IS now (what's changed).

	will receive a receipt for their payment automatically.
Practitioners previously had to email the Board to complete the following tasks, and pay for them manually:  • Apply for a letter of good standing • Apply for restoration to the register	Practitioners can now complete these tasks via their online portal.   ***  ***  ***  ***  ***  ***  ***
Members of the public previously had to email the Board to raise a concern about a registered practitioner.	There's now a form on the website.
Registered practitioners previously had to email the Board to raise a concern regarding another practitioner.	There's now a form in the portal.
Previously , applicants were not able to save their application to continue completing later.	Applicants can now save their application and come back to complete it later.